CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

Saint Xavier University has adopted this institutional style guide to provide accurateness and consistency among print and online materials that are distributed both campuswide and in the communities.

Saint Xavier follows its own in-house style, as well as incorporates rules from the Associated Press Stylebook (AP Stylebook), 2024, which provides writing guidelines for journalists; and the Yahoo! Style Guide for Web.

Please note the difference in styles per medium: AP style is used for all print publications, while the Yahoo! Style Guide is used for any digital materials, including the website, email blasts, e-newsletters, etc. Original print materials turned digital are exceptions and vice versa.

Disclaimer: University Relations reserves the right to maintain style guidelines and best practice as it pertains to content and design. University Relations also reserves the right to make changes to its style guide as questions and concerns are brought to our attention.

a/an

Use a before words that begin with consonant sounds and an before words that begin with vowel sounds. Words beginning with consonant letters may have vowel sounds and vice versa: an SXU education, an MBA, a useless tool.

academic course

Academic courses should be capitalized, unless used in a generic sense. No quotation marks: Saint Xavier University offers Biology 101, Physics 102 and many other sciences courses.

academic credentials

When referring to an individual with a doctorate, the first reference should be John Smith, Ph.D., and then Smith (last name only) in later references. If mention of degrees is necessary to establish someone's credentials, the preferred form is to avoid an abbreviation and use instead a phrase such as: John Smith, who has a doctorate in psychology.

Do not precede a name with a courtesy title for an academic degree and then follow it with the abbreviation for the degree in the same reference (i.e., Dr. Jane Doe, Ph.D.). And when listing degrees in copy, list the highest degree earned and use abbreviations only after a full name, never after just a last name.

When listing credentials consecutively, order them from highest to lowest, with degrees preceding certificates.

HERE IS A LIST OF SOME MORE COMMON ABBREVIATIONS OF ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS:

Arts and Sciences/Education

B.M.A. - Bachelor of Musical Arts

D.A. - Doctor of Arts

DCS or D.C.Sc. - Doctor of Computer Science

D.M.A. - Doctor of Musical Arts

Ed.D. (D.Ed.) - Doctor of Education

M.E. - Master of Engineering

M.Ed. (M.S.Ed.) - Master of Education

MFA - Master of Fine Arts

Business/Law

CFE - Certified Fraud Examiner

CFP - Certified Financial Planner

CPA - Certified Public Accountant

D.B.A. - Doctor of Business Administration

J.D. - Juris Doctor

LL.M. - Master of Law

MACC - Master of Accountancy

MSA - Master of Science in Accounting

MSBA - Master of Science in Business Analysis

MSF - Master of Science in Finance

PMP - Project Management Professional

academic degrees

When referring to degrees granted by the University, it is bachelor's degree and master's degree in lowercase. When referring to Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts and Master of Science, within body copy are all uppercased. The discipline in which the degree was earned, unless it is a proper noun, also remains lowercase: Bachelor of Science degree in biology, Bachelor of Arts in English, master's degree in fine arts.

Also: an associate degree (no possessive)

SAINT XAVIER UNIVERSITY AWARDS THE FOLLOWING DEGREES:

Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)

Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

Bachelor of Music (B.M.)

Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

Master of Arts in Education (M.A.)

Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT)

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Master of Science in Exercise Science (MSES)

Master of Science in Nursing (MSN)

Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology (M.S.)

academic programs

Uppercase within body copy, but lowercase program, major, minor, degree and option: Early Childhood Education program, Women and Gender Studies minor, RN to BSN online option. Capitalize Certificate when used as a proper noun, but lowercase when used alone or on second reference: Certificate in Nursing Education, Educational Technology Integration Coaching Certificate.

academic semesters and years

Lowercase terms designating academic semesters and years: freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, winter, spring, summer and fall. Smith will graduate in spring 2020.

active voice/passive voice

If the subject performs the action, the verb is active voice: The tornado destroyed the home. If the subject is acted upon, the verb is in passive voice: The home was destroyed by the tornado. When given a choice, use active voice.

addresses

Use the abbreviations Ave., Blvd. and St. only with a numbered address: 3700 W. 103rd St.* Spell them out and capitalize when part of a formal street name without a number: Western Avenue. Lowercase and spell out when used alone or with more than one street name: Massachusetts and Pennsylvania avenues. Spell out similar designations (alley, drive, road, parkway, terrace, etc.)

Spell out and capitalize first through ninth when used as street names; use figures for 10th and above: 2000 Fifth Ave., 705 W. 95th St.

Abbreviate compass points used to indicate directional ends in a numbered address.

For web style, avenue, boulevard and street are not abbreviated: 3700 W. 103rd Street.

African American, Black

Acceptable for an American black person of African descent. Also acceptable is Black. The terms are not necessarily interchangeable.

alumnus, alumni, alumna, alumnae

Use alumnus (alumni in plural) when referring to a man who has attended a school. Use alumna (alumnae in plural) when referring to a woman who has attended school. Use alumni when referring to a group of men and women.

When writing about alumni, the graduation year should always be noted: John Smith '79; Mary Jane Smith, R.S.M. '65, '67. Please note that the graduation year is included with the individual's name and that the apostrophe faces away from the year of graduation.

a.m., p.m.

Always lowercase with periods. Avoid the redundant 10 a.m. this morning or 10 p.m. tonight.

When referring to 12 a.m. or 12 p.m., always refer to as midnight and noon, respectively.

ampersand (&)

Use the ampersand when it is part of a company's formal name or composition title: House & Garden, Procter & Gamble. The ampersand should not otherwise be used in place of and, except for some accepted abbreviations: B&B, R&B.

annual

An event cannot be described as annual until it has been held in at least two successive years. Do not use the phrase first annual.

blog

A website where short entries are usually (but not always) presented in reverse chronological order, with the newest entry first. Can be news, commentary, photos, video or any combination. An update to a blog is a blog post or blog entry.

Board of Trustees

Capitalize when referring to the Saint Xavier University Board of Trustees, even when not used formally.* On second reference, capitalize the word Board. BOT is also acceptable on second reference.

A list of the most current Saint Xavier University Board of Trustees members is kept on file in the President's Office with appropriate titles and affiliations.

Please note this is an in-house style rule.*

breaks

Lowercase unless a proper name is involved: fall break, Thanksgiving break, winter break, spring break, summer break. See also: academic semesters and years.

campus

When referring to Saint Xavier's campus, do not capitalize the word campus.

The Chicago campus address should appear on all external University publications. The Chicago campus address is 3700 W. 103rd Street, Chicago, IL 60655.

campuswide, citywide, nationwide, statewide

These words are always to be used as one word with no hyphen.

comma (serial)

Use commas to separate elements in a series, but do not put a comma before the conjunction in a simple series: The flag is red, white and blue.

Put a comma before the concluding conjunction in a series if an integral element of the series requires a conjunction: I had orange juice, toast, and ham and eggs for breakfast.

Use a comma also before the concluding conjunction in a complex series of phrases: The main points to consider are whether the athletes are skillful enough to complete, whether they have the stamina to endure the training, and whether they have the proper mental attitude.

commencement

Capitalize commencement only when used with the formal event title, Saint Xavier University Commencement.

Lowercase commencement on second reference. The Saint Xavier University Commencement will be held in May for fall and spring graduates. Each graduating student will receive tickets to their commencement ceremony at Grad Fest.

Capitalize committee names: Religious Affairs Committee. When referring to a committee on second reference, lowercase committee.

company names

Abbreviate company, corporation, incorporated and limited, when used after the name of a corporate entity.

composition titles

For book titles, computer game titles, movie titles, opera titles, play titles, poem titles, album and song titles, radio and television program titles, and the titles of lectures, presentations, speeches and works of art:

- Capitalize principle words, including prepositions and conjunctions of one or more letters.
- Capitalize an article – the, a, an – or words of fewer than four letters if it is the first or last word in a title.
- Put quotation marks around the name of all such works except the Bible and books that are primarily catalog of reference material. In addition to catalogs, this category includes almanacs, directories, dictionaries, encyclopedias, gazetteers, handbooks and similar publications.

Names of most websites and apps are capitalized without quotes: Facebook, Foursquare.

Exception: "FarmVille" and similar computer game apps are in quotes.

See magazine names, musical works and newspaper names.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

Continuing and Adult Education (CAE)

contractions

Avoid excessive use of contractions.

core values

Lowercase core values in all uses, and lowercase each of the individual values: respect, excellence, compassion, service, hospitality, integrity, diversity and learning for life.

Cougar Card

Saint Xavier University's ID card.

Cougar pride

Lowercase pride in all uses.

coursework

(n) Written or oral work completed by a student within a given period, which is assessed as an integral part of an educational course.

Always use Arabic figures without st, nd, rd, or th. See months.

daylong, dayslong, monthlong, monthslong, weeklong, weekslong, yearlong, yearslong days of the week

departments and offices

When including the formal title of an office or department, capitalize names of departments, schools, offices, organizations, committees, societies, institutes, centers, boards, etc. Lowercase when not referenced in full: Jane Doe, chair of the Language and Literature Department, gave the opening comments. She has been chair of the math department since 1998.

Lowercase when used in plural, but capitalize the proper name element: the departments of Chemistry and Mathematics.

All offices are of, not for: Office of Student Life. Exceptions are the Office for Mission and Heritage, Center for SUCCESS and the Center for Learning and Student Support.

Saint Xavier University acknowledges the following as components within academic divisions, separated into three distinct areas: Education Division, Liberal Arts and Humanities Division, and Social Sciences Division.

Division of Student Affairs

doctor

Do not use Dr. and M.D. together: Dr. Gregory House, M.D. In most instances, Dr. is unnecessary – assuming the copy adequately explains the person's position. Dr. appears only before a name on first reference and only when the person is a physician. Do not use the title Dr. for people who hold doctorates because the average reader associates it with an M.D.

e-book, e-flyer, e-newsletter, e-reader

Short forms for electronic book, flyer, newsletter and reader. Hyphenated.

email

Short form for electronic mail. No hyphen.

every day (adv.) everyday (adj.)

Example: I wear my everyday shoes every day.

Facebook

first-year

A student who is in the first year of a university or college.

flier, flyer

Flyer is now preferred for frequent flyer and advertising flyer.

Founders' Day

Founders' Day celebrates the five Sisters of Mercy who, with Mother Frances Xavier Warde, founded Saint Francis Xavier Academy, the forerunner of Saint Xavier University, in 1846 in downtown Chicago.

full time, full-time, part time, part-time

Hyphenate when used as a compound modifier: She works full time. She has a full-time job.

grade-point average

Use GPA. No periods.

his, hers, their

In most cases, a plural pronoun such as they, them or their should agree in number with the antecedent: The children love the books their uncle gave them. They/them/their is acceptable in limited cases as a gender-neutral pronoun, when alternative wording is overly awkward or clumsy. However, rewording usually is possible and always is preferable. Clarity is a top priority; gender-neutral use of a singular they is unfamiliar to many readers. We do not use other gender-neutral pronouns such as xe or ze.

Arguments for using they/them as a singular sometimes arise with unspecified/unknown gender (the victim, the winner). In stories about people who identify as neither male nor female or ask not to be referred to as he/she/him/her: Use the person's name in place of a pronoun, or otherwise reword the sentence, whenever possible. If they/them/their use is essential, explain in the text that the person prefers a gender-neutral pronoun. Be sure that the phrasing does not imply more than one person.

Examples of rewording: Hendricks said the new job is a thrill (instead of Hendricks said Hendricks is thrilled about the new job or Hendricks said they are thrilled about the new job). Lowry's partner is Dana Adams, an antiques dealer. They bought a house last year (instead of Lowry and Lowry's partner bought a house last year or Lowry and their partner bought a house last year).

When they is used in the singular, it takes a plural verb: Taylor said they need a new car. (Again, be sure it's clear from the context that only one person is involved.)

The singular reflexive themselves is acceptable only if needed in constructions involving people who identify as neither male nor female. Again, it's usually possible and always best to rephrase. Dana Adams was not available for comment (instead of Dana Adams did not make themselves available for comment).

Hispanic

A person from – or whose ancestors were from – a Spanish-speaking land or culture.

Hispanic-serving institution

Saint Xavier University is designated a Hispanic-serving institution (HSI) as of May 2014. HSIs are defined as colleges and universities in which the Hispanic enrollment is at least 25 percent of their total enrollment. Note the capitalization.

holiday

"spring break" is not considered a legal holiday, so it should not be capitalized.

Two words. The "front" page of a particular website.

hyperlink

A link from one part of a web page to another page, such as a restaurant home page with a link to its menu.

intranet

Lowercased. A private network inside a company or organization, only for internal use.

iPad, iPhone, iPod

IT

Abbreviation for information technology; IT is acceptable on second reference.

it's, its

It's is a contraction for it is or it has: It's up to you. It's been a long time.

Its is the possessive form of the neuter pronoun: The company lost its assets.

Capitalize the proper names of languages and dialects: Aramaic, Cajun, English, Gullah, Persian, Serbo-Croatian, Yiddish.

legislative titles

On first reference, use Rep., Reps., Sen. and Sens. as formal titles before one or more names in regular text. Do not use legislative titles before a name on second reference unless they are part of a direct quotation.

login, logon, logoff

(n.) But use as two words in verb form: I log in to my computer.

long time, longtime

Example: They have known each other a long time. They are longtime friends.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

magazine names

Capitalize the initial letters of the name but do not place it in quotes and do not italicize. Lowercase magazine unless it is part of the publication's formal title: Saint Xavier Magazine, Harper's Magazine, Newsweek magazine, Time magazine. Check the masthead if in doubt.

For magazine articles, capitalize, add quotation marks and do not italicize: "SXU is Ranked No. 3 in Nursing" in Saint Xavier Magazine.

Mass

It is celebrated, not said, held or performed. Always capitalize when referring to the ceremony, but lowercase any preceding adjectives: high Mass, requiem Mass.

In the sense of mass communication, such as magazines, newspapers, the news services, radio, television and online, the word is plural: The news media are resisting attempts to limit their freedom. The term medium is a singular form: The newspaper is an important news medium.

Mercy

Capitalized: Mercy education, Mercy heritage.

Mercy Day

Celebrates the Sisters of Mercy and the spirit of compassion, hospitality and service that characterizes their ministry. Celebrated on Sept. 24, the date of the feast of Our Lady of Mercy. On Sept. 24, 1827, Catherine McAuley, founder of the Sisters of Mercy, opened the first House of Mercy in Dublin, Ireland.

midnight, noon

Do not put a 12 in front of it.

minority-serving institution

Saint Xavier University is a minority-serving institution (MSI). HSIs are defined as colleges and universities that enroll a significant percentage of undergraduate minority students.

mission

Lowercase mission statement, vision statement, philosophy statement, value proposition and vision of SXU's Catholic and Mercy identity.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

Mission Day

Mission Day celebrates the closing phrases of Saint Xavier University's mission statement; that is, the call to educated persons to "serve wisely and compassionately in support of human dignity and the common good." Mission Day, celebrated in March, spotlights the University's core values of service, excellence, hospitality and integrity through the presentation of three service awards to individuals who exemplify these values.

musical works

Titles of operas, oratorios, tone, poems and other long musical compositions are capitalized: Handel's Messiah, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue.

Titles of songs are enclosed in quotation marks: "All You Need Is Love," the "Anvil Chorus" from Il Trovatore.

Many instrumental works are known by their generic names—symphony, quartet, concerto, sonata, minuet—and such names should be set in plain text.

The portal page for the internal SXU community.

names

Use Jr., III, Sr. etc. only on first reference with the individual's full name. Commas are not necessary with the abbreviation usage: Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Use middle initials in full name reference only if the person uses it regularly.

On second and subsequent references to an individual, refer to the person by last name only. This is true for students as well as other individuals.

In general, do not use courtesy titles (i.e. Mr., Mrs., Miss, etc.) unless Mr. is used with Mrs. When it is necessary to distinguish between two people who use the same last name, as in married couples or brothers and sisters, generally use the first and last name. If the preferred gender pronoun is unknown, please use the courtesy title Mx.

nationalities and races

Capitalize the proper names of nationalities, peoples, races, tribes, etc.: Arab, Arabic, African, American, Caucasian, Cherokee, Chinese (both singular and plural), Eskimo (plural Eskimos) or Inuit, French Canadian, Japanese (singular and plural), Jew, Jewish, Nordic, Sioux, Swede, etc.

netID

One word, note the capitalization.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

newspaper names

Capitalize the in a newspaper's name if that is the way the publication prefers to be known. Do not place the name in quotation marks or italicize: The Xavierite, Chicago Tribune, Chicago Sun-Times, Daily Southtown, The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal.

Lowercase the before newspaper names if a story mentions several papers, some of which use the as part of the name and some of which do not.

Where location is needed but is not part of the official name, use parentheses: The Hunstville (Ala.) Times.

For newspaper articles, capitalize and add quotation marks: "SXU is Ranked No. 3 in Nursing" in the Daily Southtown.

nonprofit

One word, no hyphen.

Spell out one through nine; use figures for 10 or above. Figures of any number are always used for academic course numbers, room numbers, page numbers, ages, dimensions/measurements/weights, percentages, dates, sport statistics, monetary units, temperatures, times and more. See the full list in the Associated Press Stylebook.

Any numbers should be spelled out if they are used as the following:

- At the start of a sentence
- In indefinite and casual uses: Thanks a million!
- In fanciful usage or proper names: Fab Four
- In formal language, rhetorical quotations and figures of speech: "Fourscore and seven years ago..."
- In fractions less than one that are not used as modifiers
- If space is tight, use numerals for numbers below 10, particularly in headlines, email subject lines and HTML page titles.

offline, online

No hyphen. (This is an exception to Webster's New World College Dictionary.)

percent

Except when beginning a sentence, express percentages in figures, and spell out the word percent. Note: The % symbol may be used in tables, on business forms and in statistical or technical material as well as for infographics and other institutional documents with discretion..

In a range or series of percentages, the word percent follows the last figure only. If the symbol % is used, it must follow each figure: We give a discount of 10, 20 and 30 percent. We noted 10%, 20% and 30% increases for reactive compounds.

Note: No space appears between the numeral and the symbol %.

president

Capitalize president only as a formal title before one or more names: President Barack Obama, Presidents Gerald R. Ford and Jimmy Carter. Lowercase in all other uses: The president said Monday he will look into the matter.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

President's Council

professional titles

Capitalize formal, professional titles when used directly before a person's name: President Barack Obama issued a statement.

Lowercase and spell out titles when not used with an individual's name: The president issued a statement.

Lowercase and spell out titles in constructions that set them off from a name by commas. Some titles should be abbreviated before a person's name; some titles serve primarily as occupational descriptions and should not be capitalized: Dr. John Doe will have an assignment for students today. My favorite movie features movie star John Wayne. Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones is excited for the big game.

professor

Never abbreviate. Lowercase before a name, but capitalize Professor Emeritus or Professor Emerita as a conferred title before a name: Professor Emeritus Susan Johnson. Do not continue in second reference unless part of a quotation.

religious titles

Religious abbreviations include: Br. – Brother, Card. – Cardinal, Fr. – Father, R. – Rabbi, O.S.A. – Order of Saints, Rev. – Reverend, R.S.M. – Religious Sisters of Mercy, Sr. – Sister.

Cardinal: Use Cardinal John Doe, O.M.I., on first reference and Cardinal Doe on subsequent references: Cardinal John Doe, O.M.I., archbishop of Chicago, will be visiting campus next week. Cardinal Doe will preside at Mass for the students during his stay.

bishops: Use Most Rev. on first reference and Bishop on subsequent references with his last name: Most Rev. Joe R. Dohn is a trustee of the University. The institute was named in honor of Bishop Dohn.

priests: Use the Rev. before a name on first reference. Include orders on first reference; use periods between initials. Use only the last name on subsequent references: The Rev. Bob Barry, O.P., accompanied the student group. Barry concelebrated with the cardinal and bishop.

sisters and nuns: Use Sister, or Mother if applicable, before a name on first reference. Include orders on first reference; use period between initials. On second reference, use her first name only: *Sister Susan Sanders, R.S.M., Ph.D., is director of the Center. Sister Susan said she is looking forward to hearing the lecture. Mother Catherine McAuley founded the Sisters of Mercy.

Please note this is an in-house style rule.*

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

residence halls

Use residence halls not dorms in all references.

room numbers

Always include the capitalized letters of the building and wing, followed by a hyphen and the room number (and letter, if applicable, and again capitalized): WAC S-213, WAC L-109A, GSM 203, etc.

Roman Catholic Church

Capitalize full title; lowercase the church.

sacraments

Capitalize the proper names used for a sacramental rite that commemorates the life of Jesus Christ or signifies a belief in his holy presence: the Lord's Supper, Holy Communion and Holy Eucharist.

Lowercase the names of other sacraments: baptism, confirmation, penance (also called the sacrament of reconciliation), matrimony, holy orders and the anointing of the sick.

Saint Xavier Athletics, Saint Xavier University Athletics Department

Saint Xavier University

Spell out on first reference. Saint is never abbreviated. On second and subsequent references, it may be referred to as Saint Xavier or SXU. Capitalize University when referring to Saint Xavier: *Saint Xavier University is closed today. The University will open tomorrow.

Please note this is an in-house style rule.*

Scarlet and Gray

Please note the spelling of gray.

school

Schools and colleges within the University are uppercase: Graham School of Management, College of Nursing, Health Sciences and Business, and College of Liberal Arts and Education. On second reference: the school, the college.

School of Nursing

season

Lowercase spring, summer, fall, winter and derivatives such as springtime unless part of a formal name: Dartmouth Winter Carnival, Winter Olympics, Summer Olympics.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

shoutout (noun), shout out (verb)

sign-up (noun and adjective), sign up (verb)

Sisters of Mercy

A collective noun that takes singular verbs and pronouns: The Sisters of Mercy is the sponsor of the program. Lowercase sisters on subsequent uses.

social media, social networking

Social media are online tools that people use to connect with one another. Social networking is the practice by which people meet, interact and share information online through the use of such sites as Facebook or Twitter. Popular social media platforms include:

- Facebook
- Flickr
- Instagram
- LinkedIn
- Pinterest
- Snapchat
- Tumblr
- X (formerly known as Twitter)
- YouTube

When referring to social media accounts, capitalize the first letter of each word. Follow the spacing of the username as it appears on the platform: The Saint Xavier University Facebook page and @SaintXavier X/Twitter account. Note the use of the @ symbol. This symbol is used only for X/Twitter accounts.

When using hashtags, capitalize the first letter of each word to avoid confusion: #CougarsCare not #cougarscare.

South Side

state abbreviations

Spell out the names of the 50 U.S. states when they stand alone in textual material. The names of eight states are never abbreviated in datelines and text: Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Ohio, Texas and Utah.

Illinois should be abbreviated, Ill. or IL as postal code. See the Associated Press Stylebook for the full list of state abbreviations.

CONTENT STYLE GUIDE

subcommittee

Lowercase when used with the name of a legislative body's full committee. Capitalize when a subcommittee has a proper name of its own.

swag

Slang. Sometimes used to describe the free stuff at gift suites and in gift bags given to presenters and other award-show participants.

task force

Capitalize when used as a proper name; lowercase when used alone.

telephone extensions

For internal use, extension is abbreviated and capitalized: Ext. For external use, comma after the phone number: (773) 298-0000, Ext. 1234.

telephone number

Use figures with parentheses: (844) 468-6798.*

For web style, parentheses are not used: 844-468-6798.*

that/which

Use that and which to refer to inanimate objects and to animals without a name.

That is used to introduce essential clauses. An essential clause cannot be cut without changing the meaning of the sentence – it restricts the meaning of the word or phrase that its absence would lead to a substantially different interpretation of what the author meant: Carrie remodeled the house that burned down Friday.

Which is used to introduce nonessential clauses. Nonessential clauses can be eliminated without altering the basic meaning of the sentence. A nonessential clause must be set off by commas: The house, which Carrie remodeled, burned down Friday.
