

Course	Outcome 1: Illustrate an understanding of the moral, philosophical, historical and scientific dimensions of criminal justice issues.	Outcome 2: Explain the basic principles and methods of research in criminal justice.	Outcome 3: Articulate an understanding of criminological theory.	Outcome 4: Demonstrate a capacity to think critically and communicate effectively about issues in the criminal justice system.	Outcome 5: Describe the interrelationship of the primary components of the criminal justice system: police, courts, corrections.	Outcome 6: Communicate a keen understanding of the social and legal issues facing victims.
CJ 101: Introduction to Criminal Justice	X	X	X	X	X	X
CJ 201: Law Enforcement &amp; Society	X			X	X	X
CJ 202: Introduction to Corrections	X			X	X
CJ 210: Criminal Law	X				X	X
CJ 214: Law, Courts &amp; Justice	X					X
CJ 283: Gangs and Society	X		X	X
CJ 294: Research Methods &amp; Stats I	X	X	X	X		X
CJ 295: Research Methods &amp; Stats II	X	X		X	X

CJ 303: Police Administration	X				X
CJ 312: Criminology	X		X		X	X
CJ 311: Probation and Parole				X	X	X
CJ 316: Victimization	X		X	X		X
CJ 320: Ethics in Criminal Justice	X		X		X	X
CJ 338: Drugs and the Criminal Justice System	X		X		X	X
CJ 366: CJ Internship	X	X	X	X	X	X
CJ 368: Senior Seminar	X	X	X	X	X	X